French Affairs.

PARIS, July 23.—In the course of Thiers' address before the National Assembly at Versailles yesterday, speaking of Italy, he said it was impossible to adopt a course which would lead to war. The true policy of France was peace and reorganization, and no steps must or should be taken which will even tend to alienate Italy.

French troops have reoccupied Amiens.

The Court of Castigation has exonerated Devienz, President of the Court under the Emperor, from all criminality in the affair of Marguerita Bellanger.

Favre has ordered the prosecution of the Avenir newspaper for publishing a letter from Sallvo.

Faidherbe was elected to the Assembly by three constituencies. He has chosen to represent the department of North Lemonade.

It is proposed that the Island of Corsica be tendered to the Pope as a residence, by which means it claims that the supremacy of France as defender of the Catholic faith will be maintained.

The Rodapartist journal Avenir has been seized for publishing a violent attack on Favre.

Prince Napoleon, who has been staying for three days at Havre, has been ordered to leave France.

The municipal elections are proceeding to-day. No disturbances have occured.

Portuguese Affairs.

LISBON, July 22.—The Portuguese Cortes was opened to-day by the King in a speech from the Throne. The King expressed gratitude for the reception given to his august relatives, the Emperor and Empress of Brazil. President of Council and Minister of State, Serrano; Foreign Affairs, Topete; Interior, Sagasta; Justice, Ulloa; Finance, Aroistinque; Public Works, Cogus; Marine, Admiral Malcampo; of Colonies, Ayola.

EASTERN STATES.

The Ku Klux Investigation.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Republican members of the Congressional Ku Klux Investigating Committee deny that the Sergeant at-Arms of the Senate has countermanded the subpœnas issued for certain witnesses at the request of a Democratic member of the Committee, who notified them that they need not appear. One of the Democratic members of the committee, Hendricks of Georgia, has been excused in consequence of want of time for examination before the date appointed for receipt (July 15th), but this was the only case of the kind.

It is further stated that the leader of the Ku Klux in Orange county, North Carolina, F. M. Strowmick, and impeacher of Governor Holden, asked several times for delay, and finally hastened to Washington and reported to the Sergeant-at-Arms. The Grand Jury refused to the time for examination of the 16th of the city without leave or notice. He was again summoned, but asked for further time, saying he was sick. He has not appeared before the committee. W. L. Landers, reputed chief of the Ku Klux in North Carolina, was also summoned, and asked for further time. Platt Durham, alleged to be Grand Chief of the Ku Klux in Cleveland county, North Carolina, declined to come till after the 3d of August. H. W. Ivey, supposed to be connected with the Ku Klux of Madison county, has asked to be excused on account of business. Mr. Avery of South Carolina, reported, and when summoned, left Washington. Gen. A. R. Wright of Georgia, was summoned on the 1st of July, but has not yet replied. Other witnesses, however, have promptly obeyed—among them Col. Christy of Athens, Georgia, who is now here.

Railway Bridge Changed.

CINCINNATI, July 23.—The work of changing the gauge of the Ohio and Mississippi railroad from six feet to four feet nine inches, commenced at 5 o'clock this morning, and completing the entire length, 340 miles, at 11 this morning. Arrangements were all very perfect, and made beforehand. The workmen were stationed yesterday.

CUBA.

Progress of the Insurrection.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Letters from Cuba via Jamaica, of the 5th inst., mention several important engagements in which the Cubans were successful. One of them is said to have lasted five hours and resulted in the capture of more than one hundred Spanish prisoners. In another forty-five Spaniards were killed and one hundred and fifty prisoners taken.

Spaniards control the department of Guaboromore.

A Carasoa letter of July 6th, says the revolutionists under Herrera, have defeated Guzman Blanco's forces at every point, and he cannot hold out much longer.

The sailing of Quesada's expedition for Cuba, would, it was feared, cause a war with Spain, as it is in contravention of the treaty between the two countries. Spanish war vessels are expected to blockade the ports.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—A petition for the nomination of a Republican) legislative ticket by delegates to the Convention without recourse to primaries is being very generally signed, and the movement promises to be a success.

W. H. Dall, who arrived overland yesterday, is said to be organizing a scientific expedition to Alaska under Government auspices.

Work of clearing away the debris on the ground swept over by the great fire Saturday evening, has commenced. The total loss will reach nearly $275,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—Weather cool, foggy and windy.

The Napa Vista Viticultural Society at Sonoma last week, received a single order for 20,000 gallons wine of the vintage of 1870, to be shipped to New York.

A part of the Indians exhumed lately go to Yosemite to-morrow, and a number of them leave for Portland on the next steamer.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

Suicide of a Woman.

SACRAMENTO, July 23.—Efforts are being made to-day to recover the body of Mrs. Mueller, wife of one of the proprietors of the Half Way House, two miles below the city, in the Sacramento river. About 6 o'clock last evening she was observed by some one passing by on the steam tug to jump into the stream from the rear of the house. The tug was stopped and a boat sent to rescue her, but the attempt was unsuccessful. She had been married about six months. It is believed her marital relations were not enviable.

NEVADA.

A Miraculous Escape.

UNIONVILLE, July 23.—Dwight Hadley, son of J. T. Hadley, upon whom a well aimed last evening, was released from his perilous position at 12 o'clock midnight, after having been covered five hours to a depth of twenty feet. He got off with a few slight bruises. He was found completely hedged in with rocks.

ARCHBISHOP MCCLOSKEY.—These were the words spoken by the Archbishop on the Sunday previous to the Orange parade in New York:

Let those Orangemen alone. Let them severely alone. Let them parade until they are tired. The public sentiment will condemn them. It is ready to do so now if you do not change it. Public opinion is against them; but if you violently interfere with them it will be against you.

A rumor is afloat of a considerable defalcation on the part of the Receiver in the Land Office at Olympia. The name of the official, we believe, is Lamber. An agent of the Treasury Department is said to be in charge of the office. We have not learned particulars.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

The steamship Auckland has been totally wrecked on her voyage to Sydney. Crew and passengers all saved.

The meeting at Hyde Park yesterday was a failure. Heavy rain prevented any considerable crowd from assembling.

Prince Frederick William has arrived at Osborne.

The Emperor and Empress have gone to Birmingham.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, July 24.—The new ministerial combination under Serrano has failed. It is said Serrano refuses to undertake the formation of another Cabinet.

EASTERN STATES.

Miscellaneous News.

NEW YORK, July 24.—A Washington special to the Times says it is exceedingly probable that the change long expected in the internal revenue office will become an accomplished fact in a few days by the removal of Pleasanton. There are no indications at present as to who will succeed the present Commissioner. It is thought the position will be held open for some time with Deputy Commissioner Douglas as acting Commissioner. One of the results of the reform of affairs before the Committee of the internal revenue office and the Treasury Department is the resignation of Mr. Charley, chief of the revenue law division.

At a meeting of the French Section of International Workingmen's Association of this city, held yesterday, the subject of the recent riot was discussed. Resolutions were passed recommending the suppression of all processions except those which commence in purely American, patriotic events, and tendering the co-operation for their cause in relation to the previous riot.

A messenger of the Bank of New York was knocked down on the corner of Broadway and Warren streets Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and robbed of $30,000 in Government bonds. The thieves escaped.

The General Sheridan Club of the Irish Confederacy yesterday adopted resolutions characterizing the firing by the militia on the mob on the 12th inst., as the foulest blot on the civilization of this nineteenth century.

The total loss by the burning of the schooner Nellie, off the battery, last night, was $125,000. Cause of fire—lack of proper ventilation.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco Politics.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—The Democratic ratification meeting last night was a great success than was anticipated. From four to five thousand persons were in the hall, including many ladies. The street in front was densely packed for two blocks. The transparencies were numerous. W. T. Coleman was President, with seventy citizens as Vice Presidents. Governor Haight made the opening speech and received tremendous applause. He began with giving his reasons for becoming a candidate for re election, alluding to the slanders and insults which had been heaped upon him, and expressing his determination to appeal to the people, whom he had always served, to serve faithfully, for his vindication. The charges affecting his personal integrity he would treat with contemptuous silence, but his official policy and acts he was ready at all times to discuss. He went over the principal political incidents of his term, devoting particular attention to the subsidy question, on which he had never occupied an equivocal position. Throughout he received frequent and hearty applause, and when he concluded the applause was loud and long, and three times three cheers were given for the present and next Governor of California.

Hon. Eugene Casserly followed with a sharp review of the Republican administration of national affairs, and paid particular attention to the Chinese question, Enforcement Civil Rights' bills.

Attorney General Jo Hamilton made a very humorous and telling speech, and the meeting adjourned with enthusiastic cheers for the ticket.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—After refusing to allow visiting physicians, or any surgeon suggested by the Chief of Police, to examine Mrs. Bigby, otherwise Lisle Lester, to determine whether she had actually received any injuries or not, until Saturday night last, her physician, Dr. Albertson, went to the Chief and requested that all inquiry into the alleged assault upon her be dropped, as all traces of the blow had then disappeared, and a dozen physicians, if they examined, would find nothing to decide upon. The declines had in the meantime unearthed the fact that she was the woman who, a year or two since, at Salt Lake created quite an excitement by claiming to have been shot at by somebody as she was walking stonelin; she wearing in that city; the ball passing through her chignon without hitting her head, and various other facts of a sensational character.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Madame Agatha States received a perfect ovation this evening on her first appearance in the opera at San Francisco, since her departure for Europe six years ago. The stage was fairly covered with bouquets, and the applause was long and enthusiastic. The Metropolitan was packed, at least 200 ladies standing seats in the parquette. She has changed very much in personal appearance since her departure, and her voice is mellower, clearer and more delicate and sympathetic.

Some of the testimony before the Investigating Committee of the Board of Supervisors is very rough. The tendency generally was to exculpate Sheriff White. One witness testified to alleged facts regarding the treatment of female prisoners in the outhouse, which, if corroborated, will create some excitement. The details are unfit for publication. The investigation is still going on.

The Secretary of the British High Commission at Washington advertises in the Bulletin for claims of British subjects against the United States growing out of our civil war to be presented under the Treaty of Washington.

It is rumored that the old gas company and new city gas company have arranged for a compromise and consolidation, after the latter has spent over a half million dollars in erecting works to deliver gas at reduced rates.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

Arrest for Forgery.

LOS ANGELES, July 22.—Col. Finegans left for San Francisco to-day, having in charge W. W. Raymond, charged with forgery and personating an officer of the State Department of the United States.

Indian Woman Killed.

RENO, July 23.—An Indian woman, riding on a freight train going west at 12:30 P. M. to-day, fell between the cars. Both of her thighs were so badly crushed that she died in a short time.

Disagreement among the Democracy.

SAN DIEGO, July 23.—The San Bernardino delegation to the Democratic Senatorial Convention declined meeting the San Diego delegates on the ground that the latter were appointed by the Central Committee and did not represent the Democracy of San Diego. They will not ratify the nomination of Gen. G. Truman for Senator. At the Democratic Primaries, held yesterday, this precinct elected twelve delegates, the apportionment made by the Central Committee being only six. It is doubtful if more than six will be admitted to the Convention.

Dispatch from Stockton.

STOCKTON, July 24.—Several small buildings were destroyed by fire yesterday at the village of Woodbridge, owned by John Levinsky and Fisher & Co.

W. Hatch, of this city, received a dispatch from Satter Creek, this evening, stating that his brother E. E. Hatch, book-keeper in the Amador Mine, was shot to-day by the Leaguers.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE, July 24.—The Mormons celebrated to-day, the 24th anniversary of the entrance of pioneers into this valley, by a procession, oration, etc., at Ogden. The people gathered in from the different settlements in all parts of Utah. A great many went from here as there was no celebration to this city. The procession is said to have been over one mile in length. Daniel H. Wells was orator of the day. Everything passed off quietly.

It is reported to-day that Gov. Woods issued orders to prevent the Nauvoo Legion from parading, although they were to turn out without arms. If such an order was issued it was not enforced, as the Legion marched in procession. All Mormon stores and banks closed in the city to-day, in honor of the event.

A great many Californians are to be seen on the streets daily, particularly operators in mines and mining stocks. Among the most noted are Lent, Head and Hilliker. The hotels are all crowded, and the general appearance of the city is very lively.

ARIZONA.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 24.—The Tucson, Arizona, Citizen, July 18th, has the following:

Capt. Smith and company with supply train, en route to Camp Bowie, when 30 miles east of Tucson, were attacked by 100 Indians. The Captain and nearly all the company were a mile ahead of the wagons. The rear wagons were attacked. Word being sent forward, Lieut. Thieler returned with half the company and wagonmen to fight, and had a spirited battle, killing thirteen warriors with a loss of one soldier killed and three wounded and a few horses killed.

Gen. Crook with his command, guides, scouts and 200 soldiers in the mountains eastward, have not been heard from for several days.

POLITICAL NOTES.

From the Philadelphia Post: Something more disgraceful than a riot has occurred in New York—the formal surrender of its city government to Kinch.

Speaking of the New York riots the Dalles Republican says: Riot, slaughter and destruction is the very stronghold of Democracy, and yet they fall on her upon their success hangs our only hope of a permanent and peaceful government. Vain and delusive are all such hopes, and the sooner they are discarded the better.

A Virginia paper insists that the Democratic candidate for President must be a man who firmly and conscientiously holds that the President can not constitutionally suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, even though a dozen Congresses should attempt to clothe him with the power, that being an act which no Congress cannot delegate to another, but must do for itself.

The Richmond Enquirer says: "The Republicans made war on the South with enthusiasm; the Democrats had no stomach for the fight, and were forced into it by the pressure of the Northern public sentiment. We know they behaved badly, they encouraged the South to secede, and clinched when the deed was done; but they like us, and have always always liked us, and they were always ready to assist us in securing an honorable peace during the war. We all know what that phrase "honorable peace" means."

The Labor Men Against Haight.

The Labor Societies of San Francisco have repudiated Gov. Haight. The following report from the Bulletin of that city (July 19) will give some idea of the feeling among them:

On Monday evening Labor Union No. 1 held a meeting at Excelsior Hall to discuss the resolutions offered by Mr. French at the last meeting, to the effect that the Union regretted that the Executive Committee should have taken upon itself the right to present resolutions to a political convention without consulting the Union, and generally condemning their action.

W. D. Delaney obtained the floor and spoke at length upon the resolution. He arraigned Governor Haight for signing the lottery bill, the subsidy laws and for vetoing a bill to give the right of pre-emption of lands in the Yosemite valley, and he claimed that the committee appointed by the Labor Congress last year was charged with watching over the interests of the labor party in this State and that their object was to prevent the nomination of a man for the office of Governor, whose record rendered him unfit for the position. He cited the action of the labor party in Connecticut and New Hampshire as precedents for their action. "If," said he, "his subsidy bills had been carried out, they would have taxed the people $6,000,000."

The Commissioners appointed by Haight received $102,000 annually. Dr. Delaney said in conclusion, "If you pass the resolutions you bring the committee into contempt."

Charles A. Merrill followed in the same strain, and said that he was going to publish a campaign paper to defeat Haight. Others followed, and the meeting finally adjourned.

The San Juan Boundary.

The British Colonist, a Victoria paper, recently published an account of the alleged finding of an official American map of the northwestern boundary line, through the Straits of Fuca, which gave the island of San Juan to England. A Washington dispatch says the statement is not credited there, as no allusion to any such map or to the English claims based upon it, occurs in the correspondence of the State Department on the boundary question, which was all placed before the Committee on Foreign Relations. The question did not arise in any shape during the debates upon the late treaty; nor has there been any claim on the part of the British Government that any such map existed, in the course of the negotiations on the boundary question, which have been going on since the British Government submitted propositions for arbitration to President Lincoln soon after his induction into office. The statement claims that the map is one submitted by Col. Fremont, and afterward authorized, and that it gave several islands adjacent to San Juan to England, including Smith's Island to the south, upon which the United States had for a long term of years kept up a full lighthouse establishment. It has been lately claimed by English officers that such a map existed, but that it was called in and destroyed by our authorities; but our own officials, for the reasons given above, place no reliance in the story from British Columbia.

On the night after the riot in New York James Gordon Bennet, proprietor of the Herald, applied to the Secretary of the Navy for a force of marines to protect his office. The Secretary telegraphed to the commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, authorizing him to use the force under his command for the suppression of rioting in New York city whenever he should be properly and legally applied to for aid. Commandant Smith replied that his force was all ready. President Grant being apprised of Secretary Robeson's action telegraphed his approval.

OREGON.

There are 28 Christian (Campbellite) preachers in Oregon.

The West Side says that the assertion that the Orange procession should have been prohibited,—an assertion put forth by some of our contemporaries,—is monstrous and absurd.

A public meeting was held in Jacksonville last week to devise means for helping those who suffered by the disastrous fire at Yreka. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions. Cash, flour and bacon were

The Daily Oregonian.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1871.

The Wrath of the People.

We wish every man and woman and child in America could see the New York papers of the 11th and 12th, and read their burning, indignant utterances against the disgrace of the city and the humiliation of the Republic, caused by the craven submission of the city authorities to an intolerant and brutal mob. To read them would make the blood leap with hot indignation through the veins of every American freeman. The storm of public wrath in the city was perfectly overwhelming. The cowardly surrender was execrated on all sides, and emphatic as the newspapers were, they were but a feeble echo of the general sentiment. Every daily paper in New York and Brooklyn, with a single exception, denounced the truckling course of the Tammany politicians and declared that the city had been disgraced. The principals of Tammany—Tweed, Sweeney and the rest—fled before the storm of public anger, and left the city. The tempest of popular indignation was never equalled but once, and that was when the attack was made on Sumter. Hundreds of letters were printed in the newspapers, in which the outrage was resented and condemned in as bitter words as could be framed into written speech. It was a general uprising in defense of American principles and the American name. The dastards who had been guilty of the surrender, of craven spirits themselves, had no idea of the spirit that was in the people. The Mayor and Superintendent of Police were astounded. They had yielded to a brutal rabble and owned them as their masters, and they had done this as dirty politicians who were afraid to offend the voting power of the mob. Gov. Hoffman himself, who had evidently invoked not to interfere in behalf of the Orangemen, quailed before the outbreak of popular anger, and to save himself and the hope of saving his party, came forward at the last hour and issued his proclamation announcing that the parade would be permitted and those wishing to participate in it would be protected.

Of the infamous doings of the Tammany gang in this affair, one of the papers says: "Having first exasperated the general public by accepting the dictation of a mob, they proceeded to exasperate that mob by recalling their concession to them. General Order No. 57—declined to be long remembered in our history—was revoked in the hope of saving the Tammany gang from public vengeance. It came too late for that purpose. As the Herald tersely tells them, two bark downs are not equal to one buck up. Having officially declared that the Orange procession was likely to end in a riot, and having, therefore, prohibited it, they came forward, after midnight on the 12th, with an order allowing the procession to take place. In short, they contrived to rouse all classes, and to set every dangerous element in the community loose; and then they were obliged to make hurried preparations to defend the City. Business was disturbed, and great agitation produced—and all because the Mayor chose to go down on his craven knees to the mob."

It is right to consider these events in their political bearing. The party responsible for the shame of the surrender and for the massacre that followed it, aspires to control the nation. It is inconceivable that the American people will permit such a party to obtain power. Could it govern the country without bringing it into disgrace? It brought the country into this condition before it was driven from power in 1861; it has since become supreme in New York, and has now brought New York into a state of disgrace. This new infamy ought to decide the political campaign of 1872.

We would recommend to those who, when these things were first reported, attempted to justify the order prohibiting the Orange parade, a careful study of the sentiments of the country on the only basis possible, through the press.

A Bad Blunder.

In one particular the conduct of the Republicans of California at the opening of their campaign has been inexplicably foolish and absurd. We refer to their course in regard to that chief of modern political bugbogs, the "Chinese question." The absurdity of old cry of "a Chinese inundation," "Chinese competition," and all that sort of thing, had just about burnt out. Even Democrats were becoming ashamed of it. None but the most ignorant thought of the thing except with derision and contempt. The howl of Democratic demagogues upon the subject had exhausted itself. But at this time the Republicans, with singular absurdity and fatuity came forward and received it. They inserted in their State platform a special resolution on the inevitable Chinaman, which was pitched, but little, if any, above the tone of old-time Democratic balderdash; and their speakers began to cry out against the Chinese, to explain that the treaties with China must be abolished and Chinese immigration prohibited. It seems to have been supposed that it would be a great card to fill the ears of the groundlings with this shallow demagogues' talk; that this class would thereupon shout for the Republican candidates and vote the ticket en masse. The result, however, is precisely what any man of common penetration could have foreseen. The Republicans, by taking this course, have re-awakened the vociferations of their opponents on the same theme; and now, instead of an intelligent discussion of the real questions before the country, in which Republicans always have an advantage, the canvass is rapidly degenerating to a repetition of the same nonsensical twaddle about the Chinaman which has been heard from reckless demagogues. The Republicans, by adopting this course, necessarily place themselves on the defensive in respect to a matter of the most ridiculous and absurd character; they magnify this thing when there is absolutely nothing in it; they virtually confess that the policy of allowing Chinese to come to the country is all wrong and admit that their party is in fault for permitting it. With a folly that is unaccountable they seem not to perceive that they cannot "out under" the Democratic party on this question, and that the Democratic party will inevitably gain whatever is to be made out of such a cry. It is perfectly disgusting to witness such fatuousness. Let us hope that the Republicans of Oregon will show more wisdom, or rather, that they will employ something like common sense.

It is confessed by California papers that the price of improved lands in that State is lower than it was twelve or fifteen years ago. This is the result of the failure in crops which has been so disastrous to so many this year. Meanwhile Oregon lands are advancing in value, but prices generally are still moderate.

Southern Against the Northern Democracy.

The Arkansas Chronicle is disgusted with the recent action of their brethren in the Northern portion of the United States, and reads them a severe lesson. It says if the Northern Democracy chooses to accept the late, "so-called" amendments to the Constitution they can do so; but it is still opposed to them at all times and under all circumstances.

It adds:

If they choose to abandon the old, well-tried, lime-honored land marks, they can do so; we will not now nor ever follow after them. If they choose to become Republicans to defeat Republicans, or radicals to defeat radicalism, they can just do so; we will have none of it. If the Northern people are too corrupt, too ignorant, unfit for self-government, and must needs have a strong Government, a Government changed from what it was in 1861, a Government consolidated and centralized at Washington in a Congress or in a President, they can just fix it in that way; we will spurn it and spit upon it still, and call upon heaven and earth to witness the betrayal of constitutional liberty; we will hold it up and keep it prominently before their eyes that they murdered Albert Sidney Johnson and the hundreds of thousands of Confederates who died in the same cause. If they say we only mean to insist our own people by carrying out "dead issues," "accomplished facts," "accepting the situation," till the Democracy can get control of the Government, and then they will set about changing what they pledged themselves to acquiesce in and abide by, what we have to say is that all this is worse than telling lies; is acting lies in the face of the world, and we, for one, will have nothing to do with it. The South is too pure, too virtuous, too patriotic, too intelligent, too republican, too democratic even, to be caught in any such company, or of being guilty of any such duplicity and falsehood. Such logic is too shallow and inconsistent to deceive her, for her to give up any earthly consideration whatever. The South falls into the arms of her benefactor who chastens her, as loving and loved children are chastened, but she will commend herself to this great benefactor, by clinging on to her birthright of constitutional liberty, and never, never, will she give it up or yield it only with her last agonizing, expiring breath. Never will she yield her principles of fidelity in the glorious old Constitution of our fathers, till her true sons have shown to the world that there is a people who will yield not only slaves and property, and land and money, but life itself sooner than betray liberty, sooner than violate a covenant, sooner than permit her covenant violently to be broken. The wealth of Northern Democrats, the keen sagacity and cunning of Northern Democrats have contributed their part to our woes and misfortunes, and their cowardice since the war has become a proverb, for they profess one thing and practice another. They tell us the amendments are unconstitutional, being fraudulently adopted, and then eat their own words by crying out pitiably "we accept the situation." "O, ye base, cowardly, hypocritical Yankee Democrats! Your pledges to us have become tapes of sand! Shall we trust you now, when you start out with a lie in your mouth and deceit in your hearts?

Away with your promises; we will have none of them! Ye cowards and hypocrites! The Southern Democracy will unite with no such a putrid mass of corruption.

A Turn of the Tide.

A shipmaster from New York, superintending the construction of several new steamers on the Clyde, England, in writing home to a friend, speaks encouragingly of the prospects for American ship owners. He says the English shipbuilders are beginning to lose money through our competition. The rivalry, stimulated by an increased demand, is so great that many of the owners of yards on the Clyde are going to the wall, and none but the strongest will be able to hold out against present prices. The price of iron is slowly but steadily advancing; an inferior quality is now in common use, which is often so brittle "that it is dangerous to throw it off a truck, for fear of breaking it;" the price of labor is moving upward, and work is badly done; there is a continual conflict between workmen and employers; and the underwriters discover that bad workmanship and inferior iron are making the risks upon sea-going ships more and more perilous. The American shipmaster who makes these important statements goes on to say that with American mechanics and American material, "we can take the English Lloyd's rules and reduce them 20 per cent, and build a ship stronger, more durable, and consequently more seaworthy, than can now be built in any part of the United Kingdom."

A new theory is broached in mechanics. The agent of the Portland Water Company, who is writing against the proposition to construct water works to be owned and controlled by the city, has advanced the idea that three different pumps cannot be run at different rates of speed by the same engine; of that the speed of one cannot be increased without increasing the speed of all. We do not wonder if the machinery in the foundry down town is run on this new and astonishing principle?

THE STUDY OF HUMAN NATURE is one of exceeding interest. But there is another theme of which I wish to speak, one more easily understood by the masses in general, and that is the extreme sensitiveness of the pocket. Perhaps the reader can recall instances which have occurred during a business life illustrative of the above mentioned fact. Hence, if you would gain a friend reclaim his purse; if you would realize the terrors of an enemy, evaporate his purse. Therefore, knowing the delightful sensation which must be produced by the forcible application of open (?) Hirsch check, and I make the application simply by stating persons, from twenty to one hundred dollars in the purchase of Pianos and Organs, and furthermore, I guarantee my instruments to give better satisfaction than any other to be found in the market.

Remember—The great number of instruments sold during the last few years at my Music Ware-Rooms. "A Bear" is fearful that a few minutes spent in my store, and in the purchase of a Piano or Organ will redound materially to the health of your purse.

Yours truly,

W. T. SHANAHAN,

REMARKABLE CURE OF MRS. HOOVER.

THALATIN PLAINS, WASHINGTON CO., OREGON, July 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LOEVEA—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and my hands have been swelling more and more, and Liquid, not to raise my hand to my head.

Since last spring I have been trying your Rheumatic Remedy, and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain in the joints and shoulder and the pain have entirely disappeared and I feel my limbs and am far better than I have been for years.

CITY.

DEATH OF CAPT. WM. DIERDORFF.—Capt. Wm. Dierdorff, a well known and most estimable citizen of this city, died at ten minutes past 10 o'clock A. M. yesterday, at his residence in North Portland, after a painful illness of several weeks. His death was not unexpected, it being known for several days that it was only a question of time, the disease being considered incurable—Bright's disease of the kidneys complicated with dropsical effusions and typhoid fever. Capt. Dierdorff was born in Pennsylvania, July 4, 1815, and was, therefore, a few days past 56 years old at his death. He emigrated in 1843 to Iowa where, a couple of years later, he married Marianna Ainsworth, a sister of Capt. J. C. Ainsworth, of this city. He emigrated to Oregon with his family in 1851, and established his home at Oregon City, where his son after went into the mercantile business in the firm of Ainsworth & Dierdorff. For several years, however, he has resided at this city and has been connected with the O. S. N. Co., as chief commissary. In March, 1870, he was appointed to the office of Inspector of Hulls for the District of Oregon, vice John H. Couch, who died the preceding January. On the 20th of May, 1871, he was elected by the Grand Lodge of Oregon the honorable and very responsible office of Most Worthy Grand Master, an office which he filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to the order, till the last session of the Grand Lodge, in May. It is no mean tribute to the sterling qualities of the man that he should have received such dignity. As an Odd Fellow, he was among the first in obedience to its laws of fraternity, charity, relief and honorable dealing. As a business man, his integrity was conspicuous. As a father, he possessed the esteem and confidence of all with whom he was brought into social relations. But great as is the loss which falls upon the brothers, friends and neighbors, a greater loss is more heavily upon the stricken wife and children, young sons, (two of them), to whom he was a loving husband and affectionate father. A portion of the gloom which now overshadows the family circle is shared by all who knew the kind-hearted, social man, in life, and the sympathies of all go tenderly to the bereaved ones. The funeral exercises will be conducted at the residence, Tenth street, between C and D, according to the forms of the Episcopal church, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, after which the remains will be buried in Lone Fir Cemetery by the members of Multnomah Lodge No. 15 I. O. O. F., (of which he was a member) assisted by members of other lodges of this city, and visiting brothers from other lodges.

THE REMINGTON RIFLE.—The presence in the city of Mr. Phil. Remington, the inventor of the Remington rifle, lends an added interest to that weapon, which to-day occupies a first place among all the arms of the world. We have not met with Mr. Remington, but we have, for the first time, yesterday, examined a Remington rifle and sword bayonet, the first we think, ever brought to the city on the coast. Beck did some time ago, perhaps just after the order out a few of the rifles, but they were not furnished with the sword bayonet. He now has one, with bayonet—a specimen merely. The breech loader it is unquestionably the unpassed of any other arm, in respect of the facility with which it may be loaded and fired. The latter, for carrying the cartridges to the barrel, removing the empty shells, after firing, is the very simple that it is a wonder that Indians should have missed it to alight at last upon the complicated contrivances of other arms. The pistol fixed is a most formidable weapon, being a fine, glistening steel of sword temper, about two-foot long. In case of failure of ammunition, the bayonet may be unfixed and used exactly as a short sword. It is a combined bayonet and sword. It can be, also, unfixed quicker than any of the old style we ever saw. The rifle is a repeater, with sights arranged for all ranges. The contract upon it was obtained in 1869, and is steadily being supplied to the United States, and the outside private orders for it have been in excess of the ability of the makers to fill.

FIRE LIMITS.—The Bulletin has a sensible article on the propriety of enacting an ordinance defining "fire limits." The necessity of such an ordinance has frequently been discovered within the past two or three years, and we believe it is generally acknowledged that we require some portions of the city, the ordinance in question as a prudent and politic provision against the spread of fire. Cities are generally compelled, sooner or later, to prohibit the erection of wooden buildings in their dense business localities. Portland has more to lose by a great fire, as it frequently sweeps through the densest portions of cities elsewhere, than many a city of twice the inhabitants. The stocks of goods carried and the establishments. The large proportion of these are either in wooden buildings or in bricks of no better fire proof. A general fire in the range of blocks between those two streets, such as may occur any day, would nearly sweep the whole city. So long as we escape such a fire the owners or occupants are able to build of brick, and in view of the experience of almost every city that can be named, it is a question of serious consideration whether it were not well to adopt, very soon, such safeguards of stone and brick as "fire limit" regulations. The old proverb applies here: "A stitch in time saves nine," and "An ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure."

SHIPPING ITEMS.—When the steamer Constantine came in over the bar Sunday morning, notwithstanding the bar Skiddaw, though it is said was off the bar on Saturday. The evening was foggy, however, and the bark might have been near and still unseen. It is believed she came in on Sunday and that she will arrive to-day.

The schooner Adelaide, of Astoria, was loading on Saturday at the O. S. N. Co's dock with brick for the Astoria custom house. The schooner Rose, of Astoria, was unloading lumber at the same dock for Mr. Frank Dekum's building.

THE STEAMERS.—The steamship Orizaba arrived at San Francisco yesterday.

The steamship John L. Stephens will sail for San Francisco at 7 P. M. to-day.

The opposition steamship Constantine will sail for San Francisco, at 7 P. M. to-morrow.

RAILROAD SURVEY.—The surveying party for the Columbia River and Willamette R. R. Co., under the superintendence of Gen. Tilton, are now encamped at Cornelius Gap, and intend to commence operations immediately. They will run a line from that point to Columbia City.

HEAVY CASTING.—The Wallamet Iron Works on Saturday afternoon cast a fly wheel for the Commercial Mills, McMinnville, which will weigh when filled 3,500 pounds, and is claimed to be the heaviest single piece casting ever made in the State.

EMIGRATION MOVEMENTS.

Messrs. Russell, Ferry & Woodward have handed us a couple of envelopes containing letters and printed material, from Col. W. H. Gray, General Traveling Emigrant Agent, who states that he is devoting his whole time to the promotion of emigration to Oregon from New England, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, etc. He represents that with a united effort thousands of people can be started to Oregon during this and next year. He wants the people of Oregon, however, to do something to assist him. He thinks that already, he has agencies at work which will result in sending two or three thousand from Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, and Western Virginia. All that is wanted, he says, is to have a leader who can give all necessary information to inquirers, and show them how to get here. We do not know anything of the reliability of Col. Gray, but he is evidently an active man, and widely known in New England, and the States and Provinces named above. The Salem (Mass.) Observer has this notice:

"HOME FOR THE LAND OF SUNSET, OREGON.—We have had a call from Col. Gray, the well known Emigration Agent, who has traversed the continent of Europe in the interest of emigration to our western shores. Col. G. proposes establishing an agency in this city for Salem and vicinity, where information can be obtained both in regard to location, climate, soil, productions, means of transit, expenses, &c. One of the most attractive and popular fields, at present, is Oregon. Col. Gray is going in connection with the well known Real Estate Agency of Messrs. Russell & Ferry of Portland, Oregon, who will give all needed information to those already there, or intending to make that locality their future residence. Labor of all descriptions is in demand, lands are cheap and the climate healthy."

A New Hampshire paper has this item:

PERSONAL.—Col. W. F. Gray, general traveling agent of the American and European Emigration Society, and representing the lands of the Union Pacific Railroad, passed down our valley last week. The Colonel is all alive and says that emigration west will be larger in 1871 than ever before. In this connection we would call attention to a letter from 'Tourist' in another column."

We suppose, as a matter of course, Col. Gray is working in this matter for pecuniary gain; but that is what everybody works for, and the fact does not lessen the interest which Oregon has in the success of his emigration movements. In the absence of any Immigration Aid Society in this State, the Board of Real Estate Agents of this city would seem to be about the proper channel through which practical communication may be had with emigration movements at the East, and we suggest that the people who are willing to sustain enterprises like that of Col. Gray, cooperate with the Board, and render it such assistance as it may ask for.

AMUSEMENTS.

STEAMBOAT EXCURSION.—Arrangements have been made for a pleasant excursion by steamboat to Oregon City and back, on Friday evening next, the boat to leave the P. T. Co.'s wharf at 7 precisely. Tickets for the trip $1 00. Proceeds to be devoted to the refunding of the Knights M. E. Church. All are respectfully invited to aid in this benevolent enterprise.

NATHAN'S JUVENILE TROUPE.—Mr. E. M. Nathan, the head and manager of the Nathan Juvenile Troupe, arrived from San Francisco by the steamer Constantine, to make arrangements for the appearance in this city of the troupe. He has secured Oro Fino Theater, and will send an immediate message to San Francisco for the troupe to come up on the return trip of the John L. Stephens. The central characters of this troupe are three daughters and two sons of Mr. Nathan's, the other being Petite Matilda, a girl of about eleven years, who has been on the Australian and California stage for the last five years, winning golden opinions from both press and people. We have seen some notices of her in the San Francisco papers which speak of her as a "prodigy," "genius," etc. Her role is character representations, in legitimate drama, burlesque, extravaganza, etc. The others are variety performers, and they too are well spoken of. We fancy our people will welcome the advent of any troupe which promises legitimate entertainment. Judging from the glowing notices from many sources, this troupe will prove just what our amusement seekers have been waiting for.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

ON BOARD STEAMSHIP CONSTANTINE.

WHEREAS, In consideration of the delightful voyage experienced by the cabin passengers of the good sea-going steamship Constantine, Capt. Chas. Thorne, on her voyage from San Francisco to Portland, Oregon, on the 19th inst., it is eminently proper that they should show their appreciation in some proper manner of their indebtedness to the officers of said vessel, for the manifold courtesies extended towards them, and constant care for their comfort and pleasure while on route; therefore,

Resolved, That on the steamship Constantine we have a thorough sea going vessel, safe and comfortable, and a fit representative of an "opposition to a monopoly that cannot be bought off."

Resolved, That in its noble commander, Capt. Chas. Thorne, we recognize a competent officer and thorough gentleman.

Resolved, That to the subordinate officers of the steamship Constantine, we have observed officers well versed in their vocation, exacting strict discipline, but with a proper regard at all times for the comfort of the passengers.

Resolved, That the owners of the steamship Constantine, as well as the travelling public who patronize her, are particularly fortunate in having such, and the services of so competent and ladylike stewardess as the one who fills that office creditably at present, and to whom the lady passengers of the voyage as aforesaid feel so deeply grateful for her kindness extended toward them en route.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions, properly attested to by the President and Secretary, be presented to the Captain and officers of the steamship Constantine.

Resolved, That a copy of the same be presented to the public Press of Portland, Oregon, with a request that the same be published.

THE FUTURE NEW YORK.—In twenty years from now, this city will, if it continues in the path of industry and enterprise it has trodden the past five, be the largest city in the world. The grandeur and prosperity of Paris has fallen before the demon of revolution and the strength and ambition of London cannot compete with the fresh young life that animates the growth of New York. The Boulevards, in their broad, sweeping, substantial way, are rapidly carrying the center of metropolis to what five years ago was the city limits. Magnificent depots, stately hospitals, wonderful hotels, and princely private houses came up like magic. With slower growth the vast cathedrals are rising on several avenues. Twenty years from now the Central Park may be put up in streets and building lots to accommodate people who must have their dry goods palaces within reach. Already Arnold & Constable and Lord & Taylor, who are at Eighteenth and Twentieth streets, are too far down town. Ground on the Hudson, from Ninetieth up to One hundred-and-fiftieth streets, is to be laid out for a magnificent park to be called the "River Side Park." Vanderbilt's big depot on the east side is an immense structure, its domed roof towers into the heavens proportionate to its spread on earth, and it covers several blocks.—Cor. St. Louis Republican.

A Perilous Season.

Glorious and delightful as the Summer weather is, its tropical heat is a severe trial to the vital powers. Even the strongest are sometimes prostrated by its effects. The common phrase applied to this condition of the body is "general debility." Now, general debility arises from, and includes a variety of ailments. The liver is more or less affected, the bowels are either constipated or too much relaxed, the stomach but half performs the work of digestion, the appetite is poor, and the spirits depressed. This is what is called general debility. It is general derangement of all the physical functions, and required as a remedy a medicine that will regulate them all. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted to this purpose. Its general operation is not confined to a single organ. If the liver is affected, it restores its tone. If the stomach is torpid, it invigorates it. If the nerves are tremulous and weak, it braces and reinforces them. If the mind, whether overpuzzled with the body, is gloomy and despondent, it relieves the difficulty, and soon brings the whole mechanism of the body into harmony with the laws of health.

There is no civilized nation in the Western Hemisphere in which the utility of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a tonic, corrective and antibilious medicine, is not known and appreciated. Throughout the Tropics it is considered both by the people and the profession, the standard specific. While it is a medicine for all seasons and all climates, it is especially suited to the complaints generated by the weather, being the purest and best vegetable stimulant in the world.

Beware of the Bitters made of cheap and dangerous materials, which unscrupulous parties are endeavoring to foist upon the people. Their name is legion, and the public has no guarantee that they are not poisonous. Adhere to the tried remedy, Hostetter's Bitters, sold only in glass, and never in kegs or barrels.

THE WAIL OF LIBERTY IN NEW YORK.

New York papers are received up to dates just before the riots. With the single exception of the World they comment with unsparing severity on the shameful surrender of the city authorities to the mob. To show their spirit and temper we make some extracts:

[From the New York Herald.]

No condemnation of the riot which was threatened to-morrow can be too severe, and no words of burning scorn can fully convey the general detestation of the contemplated outrage. In a country where all men are equal, where the panoply of liberty is over all, where freedom of opinion, of speech and of action is accorded to all, the slightest invasion of the rights of any is a fit subject for rebuke. When such invasion of the rights of others takes the form of dictation from a few men prescribing the course of action for a mob threatening disorder on the part of the people, and threatening civil war and bloodshed because they are not heeded, and when that menace is made in terms as unmistakable as language can convey it. Such is the case now, and we mean to make ourselves heard upon this question of the Orange riot once for all. This is no time for soft words, for persuasive language, or for conciliatory speeches. Nothing short of the denunciation which means swift and sure punishment will answer in this emergency. The law must rule, and the rights of all must be respected. Those who disregard the law and violate the rights of others, causing riot and bloodshed, must be punished by the law for the murders of which they may be guilty.

Remember, Oh, Tweed, Sweeney & Co., that we are in a free country. Will we be so long after your pitiful surrender to the mob?

[From the New York Evening Post.]

Let us of the Northern States no longer deplore the condition of the South. We have our Ku Klux here in New York, but they do not take the trouble to conceal themselves. Ruffians, carrying muskets and pistols, were seen in the streets of New York last night, and wandering from bar-room to bar-room, prepared to shed the blood of peaceful citizens on Wednesday. They do not take the trouble to blacken their faces, or to disguise their persons, these New York Ku Klux, for they knew that the city which misgoverns New York were their friends.

Is anything gained for the cause of law and order by the Mayor's surrender to the mob? The city authorities declare themselves afraid of the ruffianly and law defying elements will that make these less exacting? more inclined to peace and good behavior?

[From the New York Tribune.]

We can imagine the [illegible] of countenance our Mayor would have exhibited to a delegation of Frenchmen who should have proposed to him to prohibit the German parade out of regard to their national susceptibilities. Yet he has done a meaner and more unlawful thing in this case. He has arbitrarily forced a body of citizens to give up a peaceable and lawful manifestation of the bidding of riotous brawlers, who threaten murder and disorder if their barbarous fancies are not complied with. The only reason which could have dictated this surrender, is that the law-breakers of Wednesday are more numerous and valuable voting stock than those they propose to attack. This, and not the least, of the evils we have suffered from that corrupt ring, which is a nursery of crimes and abuses, is this enforced surrender of the honor and fair name of the city to a brutal mob, which now has no check upon its arrogance and greed.

[From the New York Sun.]

Superintendent Kelso represents the Democratic rulers of this city. He has received his orders from them. They have been terrified by the threats of the Hibernian societies, and have bowed their heads. They have virtually submitted to mob rule. They have confessed that the will of a secret organization has more weight with them than the rights of the people. They assume to discriminate between two Irish factions, and declare that Irishmen of the rival religious belief, as Meagher and Emmet, Wolfe, Tone and John Mitchell have no right to parade the streets of New York. The Mayor, Governor and Superintendent of Police virtually say that they are incompetent to maintain the dignity of the laws and to preserve public order.

This action of Superintendent Kelso will create a profound impression throughout the country. Its effect will be as injurious to the Democratic party at the next Presidential election as was the pusillanimity of James Buchanan in 1859, and that of Horatio Seymour in 1863, at the election of 1864. The American people never forgive cowardice in their leaders, and of all cowardice this truckling of the Democratic city authorities to the threats of the Hibernians is the worst that has been exhibited for many a long day.

[From the New York Evening Mail.]

There will be but one opinion among the law-abiding citizens of New York as to the order of our Chief of Police forbidding the Orange parade to-morrow. As to the propriety of the proposed parade itself, there were different views, although we presume that a majority of our citizens regretted any such intrusion of Old World feuds upon our soil. But to forbid a parade under duress from the same elements that eight years ago filled our streets, with gangs of cowardly and cruel rioters, is to make a surrender that will cause strong men to wrap rags of rags and good men to use the language of our roughs. It is terribly unfortunate that we are again brought face to face with some of the more dangerous elements of our city, and that too in an attitude encouraging to them and disheartening to good men. There is but one way in which these elements ought to be confronted. What that way is, any decent looking man you may meet on the street and the answer will come out, hot and strong. The supremacy of the law may yet be vindicated in our streets at far greater risk than would have attended its assertion to-morrow. We warn those who have this time succeeded in adjourning that day of trial that the delay will be of no advantage to them.

[From the New York Times.]

No one can doubt that public feeling has been stirred to its depths by the disgraceful surrender of our city to the mob. Even our contemporaries who are in the pay of the Ring, and who generally support their employers, for once revolt at their odious task. With a single infamous exception—that of the World—every journal in this city yesterday bitterly condemned the Mayor and his friends for handing over the public liberties into the hands of the Irish Catholics. It was an act without a parallel in the history of this country—an act so cowardly and base that every honest man must regard it with shame and disgust. The Tammany leaders absolutely forsook the city by preconcerted arrangement. Gov. Hoffman was among the first to run. Tweed packed up his biggest diamonds in a carpet bag, and took flight early on Monday. Sweeny and Connolly took off to Long Branch. Hall, after writing the circular which he made poor Kelso sign, decamped. These men have not even the pluck to face their own supporters. Their rivers, as the Orientals say, turn to water. They forsook the city, and officially announced to the Irish Catholics that everything was left at their mercy.

[From the New York Commercial Advertiser.]

The people of New York feel a sense of humiliation which they little thought those to whom authority and power are intrusted would have brought upon them. Once before, the mob spirit in one of its fiercest and most alarming demonstrations has been vigorously repressed, and the authority and majesty of law have been vindicated. Now, in presence of threatened disturbance, the Mayor and the police can reach no better conclusion than to offer a deliberate surrender and to refuse to the Orangemen the privileges so freely accorded to all other organizations. They have quailed before the menaces of a secret force which it was their duty to drag to the light and to punish for any infraction of the law.

In another article the Tribune comments on the tardy action of the Governor. We quote from its issue of the 12th:

This is a desperate though tardy effort on the part of Gov. Hoffman to save the Democratic party of the State, whose position has now assumed a national importance, from the consequences of the enormous blunder which sprang from the ignorance and recklessness of the City Hall Directory. As there is a positive comfort in a feeling of confidence toward the head of the State, we wish we could ascribe this action to the Governor's sense of right and of civic duty. But it is only too evident that it was forced upon him and the party he represents by the unexpected vehemence of the popular protest against the wretched truckling of the city authorities. Not only in the public press, which, with the sole exception of the hired tool of Tammany, denounced the surrender to the mob in dignified and fitting language, but also on the streets and in all places of public resort, there was but one voice of detestation of the craven betrayal of the very principle of government by the party of unprincipled sycophants by whom we are ruled. It was rarely you could find any one so lost to all sense of manliness or national self respect, as to speak in approval of the Kelso circular. By a singular freak of poetic justice even the ruffians in whose behalf the order was issued expressed no gratitude for it. They growled at Mr. Hall for spoiling their day's fun. But all decent citizens felt that the fair name of the city had been stained by the bungling hands of that coarse cabal, which is so reckless toward the law, and so cowardly toward the mob. Later in the day, every cheek which had retained capacity to blush was reddened with shame when the proclamation of the Democratic Governor of New Jersey appeared, in which he not only warns the evil-doers of his own State of the sure punishment which will follow any attempt at the fulfillment of their riotous designs, but also takes occasion to inform our own rowdies of the reception which will await them, if the expected leisure of to-day should tempt them over the water. From the universal applause bestowed on that sensible and spirited paper, our own rulers may have gained some idea of the depth of public contempt into which they had fallen by their own subservience to the mob.

The proclamation of the Governor was the only way out of the untenable position the Democratic organization of the city had assumed. His action comes too late to save the party from that popular condemnation which always follows such criminal blunders. It is scarcely possible that the Orangemen, who had accepted the situation of force created by the circular of Superintendent Kelso, can now so far modify their arrangements as to go on with their interrupted celebration. The very plunge of front, executed so suddenly in the face of critical circumstances, is a sufficiently clear evidence of a confusion of counsels, which is fatal to the discipline and success of a political party.
